

Meet our February 2014 Speaker

Dale Wainwright

Former Justice for the Supreme Court of Texas

Dale Wainwright, former Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, will be the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Lake Travis Republican Club, to be held Tuesday, February 18, 2014 at the Hill Country Club.

Justice Wainwright was elected to the Supreme Court of Texas on November 5, 2002, and re-elected in 2008. He previously served as presiding judge of the 334th Civil District Court in Harris County.

Justice Wainwright was appointed to the civil district court in 1999 by then Gov. George W. Bush. Lawyers in the Houston Bar Association gave Wainwright a 90 percent approval rating in the judicial-evaluation poll, with almost two-thirds rating him "outstanding". He resolved over 3000 cases and reduced his docket by approximately 20 percent. In 2001, Gov. Rick Perry appointed Wainwright to a temporary commission to serve as justice on the Supreme Court for a case from which a sitting justice recused. From 2004 through 2008 Justice Wainwright served as the Supreme Court's liaison to the State Bar of Texas to oversee the 85,000 member organization.

On September 30, 2012, Wainwright officially resigned from the Texas Supreme court, by which time he was the third-longest-serving member of the court. He then joined the Austin office of the law firm Bracewell and Giuliani.

Wainwright also has a long history of leadership and public service, with involvement in many community activities. He and his wife, Debbie, have three sons-Jeremy, Phillip and Joshua- and are members of the Christian Life Church in Austin.

Roger Williams, United States Representative for the Texas 25th District, spoke to the Lake Travis Republican Club on January 21st. The items on his agenda as our representative are: lower taxes, less government, stop expending, defend our borders, and support Israel.

He said that we should focus on fixing the economy. Mainstream America is hurting badly with 15% of the people living in poverty and 47 million people on food stamps. Cutting taxes, eliminating inheritance taxes, getting out of the Health Care business would help fix the economy.

Industries should not be penalized, we should be drilling for oil in the Gulf, the military needs strengthening, and balancing the budget is a must.

He said that this coming election maybe the MOST important election of our lifetime and we MUST get out the vote to gain seats on the House and win the Senate. It will determine our future as a Capitalist or Socialist society. It will resolve whether we will be independent or dependent of the world.

Roger Williams is sticking with what the Constitution says, with his district, with his conscience, and with the Bible.

When asked how do we get our rights back he said that Obama's executive orders are not legal –he has beaten the system. But, who do we sue? Eric Holder? He mentioned that voting for Bills is not easy because they contain several things together of which maybe only one he would like to vote for.

He also said that voter ID is very important but it should be a state issue.
